

HISTORY

Harriett M. Lothrop, a children's author and DAR member, presented the idea for a children's organization to the Daughters of the American Revolution in 1895.

C.A.R., the nation's oldest, largest, patriotic youth organization, offers membership to anyone under the age of 22 who is lineally descended from an individual who provided military or civil service or gave material support to the cause of independence during the American Revolution.
